Benefiting the Training of Women for Ministry

Inspire women

Find your spark and change the world

We inspire women of all ethnicities and economic levels to connect with a need in our world and train them to use their gifts and resources to make a difference.

Our Impact

- Reaching 150,000 through citywide conferences, radio, and publications
- Encouraging over 1,000 pastors' wives and ministry leaders a year through monthly gatherings
- Training over 200 women through our signature Leadership Certificate program to develop the emotional fortitude to finish their mission
- Awarding since we began, over 1,800 awards for scholarships and ministry grants totaling over $2m

Anita Carman | Founder & President

The women we train reach abused kids, trafficked women, suicidal teens, at risk youth, alcoholics, drug addicts, prisoners, the homeless and serve and shape hundreds of different missions and ministries.

From the thousands inspired at our conference, we unite and train women to change the world through missions and ministry reaching...

Keynote

Alan Robertson is the oldest son of Duck Commander. He grew up hunting, fishing, and helping build the foundation of the family business in the 1970's & '80's. He left the duck call business when he received the call for full time ministry in 1988 and served as a senior pastor in West Monroe, Louisiana, until July 2012 when Alan returned to the Duck Commander business. He is a part of A&E's most-watched series, Duck Dynasty, which features a Louisiana bayou family living the American dream as they operate a thriving business while staying true to their family values and lifestyle. Alan is a part of the family's commitment to spreading the gospel of Christ through their love of hunting and the great outdoors. The only Robertson without a beard, he calls himself a Jacob in a family of Esaus.

A Daughter's Destiny is the captivating story of a poor, uneducated village girl in China and how her daughter found redemption in the midst of her mother's broken dreams—and a voice to inspire women around the world.

“Anita Carman’s life has impacted thousands of women all across the world, including my own. Her commitment to shape lives has been a beautiful sight to behold. And that is why this story, of how her own life was molded, is even more powerful. In these pages, you will read the authentic and gripping saga of a woman, her mother, and the God who loved them both.”

—PRISCILLA SHIRER, BIBLE TEACHER AND AUTHOR
